

November is National American Indian Heritage Month

November is National American Indian Heritage Month

It is a time to celebrate the rich cultural traditions and proud ancestry of American Indians and recognize ..."the vital contributions that American Indians have made and continue to make to the strength, balance, tolerance, and diversity of our society."

American Indian Heritage Month

Remembers Billy Frank Jr., Nisqually Nation

Honoring the Legacy of Billy Frank Jr- Main Display

Throughout November L&I will celebrate the rich cultural traditions and proud ancestry of American Indians. Scheduled activities include:

On Display will be "Sharing Our Culture through Canoe Journey" is a retrospective of photos from 2002-2013 of the journey. Here is a little about Denny and the exhibit. Denny Hurtado's exhibition of select photos from his massive collection of images. We will have on loan to us 10 images from canoe journey that will be displayed here at Labor and Industries. Hurtado is the former Chairman of the Skokomish Tribe and one of the original signatories of the Centennial Accord. Canoe Journey evolved as a response to that first accord.

American Indian Heritage Committee presents -Raven Heavy Runner of the Two Spirit Society shares from 12:00p.m. to 1 p.m. in Room S130.

Opening Remarks, Invocation, Honoring the Legacy of Billy Frank Jr. - by Brian Frisina

The return of the Wa He Lut Dancing Turtles , November 13th performance from 12:00p.m. to 1 p.m. in the rotunda.

American Indian Heritage Committee presents Back to the River November 20th. The film will be 12:00 p.m. to 1 p.m. with discussion in room S130.

The American Indian Heritage Month planning committee collecting clothing donations during November.

If you would like to bring an item to display during the month, please contact Brian Frisina, 902-5421, in the L&I Library. Go to the American Indian Heritage Month web site for more information.

The Office of Human Resources is sponsoring this event. If you would like to bring an item to display during the month, please contact the chairperson Brian Frisina, 902-5421, in the L&I Library. The Office of Human Resources is sponsoring this event.