

F.I.R.E. Summit

Facilitating Indigenous Revolution through Education

November 13, 2014

8:00 am – 2:30 pm

South Puget Sound Community College

The F.I.R.E. Summit is a joint project between the Nisqually Tribe, the Squaxin Island Tribe, the Chehalis Tribe and SPSCC. We are working together to support the success of Native students in higher education. Join us for a Native students day at college.

Featuring Guest Speaker Sherman Alexie and Family Reception

Learn more: Eileen Yoshina Director of Diversity and Equity (360) 596-5383 eyoshina@spscc.edu

Special thanks to Ruth Whitener for the Blue Butterfly design